Hi Sarah,
Thanks so much for writing. Since getting the letter letting me know about the end of my first term 3-4 weeks ago, I've been meaning to get in touch with Dan Coleman and Mark Chilton. Things have been a bit consuming at home, though. I'm sorry for not being in touch. As it was Mark and Dan who approached me originally, I thought I'd speak with them, initially, and let them know I am VERY INTERESTED in being re-appointed. I have enjoyed membership on the board and learned a great deal. As far as I'm aware, I have represented the interests of Carrboro, particularly the deep commitment of the town to environmental protection and social justice - without, of course, feeling that I'm advocating, or considering anything above the best interests of the entire service area. Please let the Mayor and Board of Aldermen know of my earnest wish to continue representing Carrboro on the OWASA Board of Directors for the next three years. I would be to talk with the Aldermen, or any members who are interested.

Thanks again for writing.
William
