

Social Media Community Guidelines

The following guidelines will be posted on all Town of Carrboro Social Media pages.

The purpose of the Town of Carrboro Social Media pages is to provide local residents and visitors with timely information about government services, programs and emergency communications.

Representatives of the Town of Carrboro communicate via these Web pages. Consequently, any communication via these pages is subject to North Carolina public records law.

The Town of Carrboro understands and values your comments and feedback but is unable to answer any questions and concerns via these forums. Please visit the Town of Carrboro's official website at www.townofcarrboro.org for direct contact to Town departments.

The Town of Carrboro does not endorse any advertisement or marketing effort that may be seen on these social media sites.

The Town of Carrboro will not accept event invitations, cause invitations and page suggestions, and does not follow any other Twitter users.